

Chicago-specific Resources

National Lawyers Guild—Chicago

24-hour hotline: 312-913-0039

Chicago@nlg.org, <http://nlgchicago.org/>

People's Law Office

773-235-0070, peopleslaw@aol.com, <http://www.peopleslawoffice.com/>

Transformative Justice Law Project

773-272-1822, info@tjlp.org, <http://tjlp.org>

AIDS Legal Council of Chicago

312-427-8990/Toll free 866- 506-3038, <http://aidslegal.com>

(If you are denied access to HIV medications)

American Civil Liberties Union

Lesbian and Gay Project, HIV/AIDS Project

312-201-9740, acluofillinois@aclu-il.org, <http://www.aclu-il.org>

(If you are denied access to HIV medications)

General Resources

For right to protest resources and legal referrals:

National Lawyers Guild

212-679-6018, <http://www.nlg.org/>

For guidance on reporting police abuse or misconduct:

National Police Accountability Project

617-227-6015, npap@nlg.org, <http://www.nlg-npap.org>

Guidance for LGBTQ youth of color facing police abuse or misconduct:

Streetwise and Safe

212-929-0562, info@streetwiseandsafe.org, <http://www.streetwiseandsafe.org/>

For accessible legal advice in the New York City area:

Sylvia Rivera Law Project

866-930-3283, info@srp.org, <http://www.srlp.org>